Reasons for the enactment

The Punjab Requisitioning and Acquisition of Immovable Property Act, 1953 (Punjab Act XI of 1953) was give special powers to the State Government requisito tion and acquire immovable property required for purposes, being purposes of the State. The Act is in force in the State of Harvana by virtue of the provisions contained Punjab Reorganisation Act, 1966. The life of the Act is to expire on the 14th April, 1968. There is still acute shortage of both residential and office accommodation throughout the State of Harvana and therefore there is still need for the continuance of the special powers provided by the Act for the requisitioning and acquisition of immovable property. The proposed measure seeks to extend the life of the Act by five more years, i.e., up to the 14th April, 1973.

2. The Committee constituted under the proviso to sub-section (2) of section 3 of the Haryana State Legislature (Delegation of Powers) Act, 1967 (30 of 1967), has been consulted before the enactment of this measure as a President's Act.
